Their teacher is Mrs. Joe Bracken and they are seated in the south balcony. We are delighted to have you here this morning to observe the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. I think that when the Legislature is in session we like to think that this is where the action is. So, we are glad that you have come to the action this morning. We do have two bills on Final Reading this morning, #15 and #16 and we are up to that point in the agenda in the order of business. If we could begin to move the Senators into their seats, we could take up the two bills that are on Final Reading.
